BASIS OF COMPLAINANT'S CHARGE AGAINST THE ACCUSED:
On or about July 10, 2019 at or near Hereford, in the District of Arizona, United States Border Patrol Agents (BPA) observed a white Honda Accord bearing a temporary license plate parked at the Knights Inn in Sierra Vista, AZ. In the past month, BP has received intelligence that the Knights Inn has seen increasing alien smuggling activity. Load drivers will stash aliens at the hotel until the State Route 90 checkpoint temporarily closes. The same white Honda Accord, which is registered in Chandler, AZ, was seen at this hotel less than two weeks ago. BPA observed the driver, later identified as John J. Russo, leave the hotel in the Accord alone and began surveillance on the vehicle. Twice the driver pulled off on the shoulder and turned on the hazard lights. The driver then made a U-Turn when he passed the BPA, the agent could see there were now multiple people in the vehicle. The BPA also received a citizen's report over the service radio that there was a white Honda Accord loading illegal aliens near State Route 92. The agent conducted a vehicle stop. When asked about the people in the back, the driver replied, "I'm just giving them a ride." One of the passengers was wearing camouflage clothing. BPA determined all four passengers, including Mario Gonzalez-Alvarez, Ismael Sandoval-Ordonez, and Rogelio Munoz-Meza, were citizens of Mexico, in the United States illegally.
Material witnesses Mario Gonzalez-Alvarez, Ismael Sandoval-Ordonez, and Rogelio Munoz-Meza stated they had made arrangements to be smuggled into the United States for money. The material witnesses stated that after crossing into the United States illegally, they were guided to the highway and were told to wait for a load vehicle. When the white car arrived, their guide told them that was their ride, and they came out of the brush and got into the car.
